

Please dont ban broadcast. I travel frequently and its important to know what the weather is doing in other locations. I love this service!!! Its not compeeting with the broadcastors in any given area, but the service does allow the subscriber to check ahead for travel to while driving---regular radio only tells you local conditions the satalite radio helps you plan ahead. This is especially important durring the winter months while driving!!!!